

SPEAKING TEST

PART 1: GREETINGS AND SOCIAL INTERACTION (FINAL SPEAKING TEST)

You will be asked from 3 to 5 questions about some common topics.

PART 2: SOLUTION DISCUSSION (E-LEARNING SPEAKING TEST)

Situation 1: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You have decided to improve your English, and you are considering which option would be the great one for your English learning.

There are three options:

- + Registering for a short-term English course about 6-12 months in foreign countries;
- + Taking up English courses at prestigious English centers in the country; and
- + Purchasing courses from popular English learning websites or applications.

Situation 2: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You have applied for several job positions and received some offers from employers. You are considering which option would be the great job offer.

There are three options:

- + A stable job with upper income, but you must work for night shifts;
- + A favorite job with middle income, but you usually have business travels; and
- + A desk job with lower income, but you only work for 4 days a week.

Situation 3: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You've just moved to a big city for further education. You are considering which option would be the great one for a living place.

There are three options:

- + Living in a college dorm;
- + Living in a single room / house for rent; and
- + Living in a relative or a friend's house.

Situation 4: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You are going on a holiday and stay for three nights in a tourist destination. You are considering which option would be the great place for staying.

There are three options:

- + A spare room in a local person's house;
- + A privately rented apartment with full facilities; and
- + A hotel or motel room

Situation 5: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You are going to make a surprise for your mom and that's is her 60th birthday. You are looking for a nice gift for this special occasion.

There are three options:

- + A ticket to a music live show;
- + A warm party at her favorite restaurant; and
- + A handmade birthday cake.

Situation 6: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You just graduated from university and would like to do something during a gap year before looking for a job. You are considering which option would be the great opportunity for your gap year.

There are three options:

- + Joining an international volunteering organization and doing some volunteer work;
- + Applying to work for international camp jobs or internships; and
- + Taking an adventure travel to somewhere in the world.

Situation 7: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You plan to prepare a special dinner for your partner and you are considering what to do

There are three options:

- + Going to a restaurant and enjoying authentic local foods;
- + Buying some food in grocery stores and prepare a special meal; and
- + Strolling around street food stalls and savor some fast foods or snacks.

Situation 8: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: You did your best and achieved very good results at the end of the semester. Thus, you received a big sum of money from your university scholarship. What would you do with it?

There are three options:

- + Purchasing something for your hobbies or your study;
- + Travelling to another country; and
- + Opening a saving account for later use.

Situation 9: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: After your final exam is over, some of your friends are going to make a plan for a memorable vacation. Which of these places do you think is the best?

There are three options:

- + Sandy beach for swimming and aquatic sports;
- + Picturesque mountainous area for picnic; and
- + Amusement park.

Situation 10: You will have a problem situation and three options. You will choose the best option and explain the reason.

- Situation: Your University organizes a campaign with different activities to raise students' awareness of animal protection. You are considering what you should do.

There are three options:

- + Adopting a homeless dog or cat at pet caring centers;
- + Selling handmade souvenirs or baked products to donate for animal conservation areas; and
- + Participating in sea animal drawing or photographing contest.

PART 3: TOPIC PRESENTATION (GROUP PRESENTATION)

PART 4: FOLLOW-UP QUESTIONS (GROUP PRESENTATION)

Topic 1: There are some challenges of studying abroad.

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 2: Why do many young people prefer to live in the city nowadays?

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 3: Online learning is really beneficial to students.

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 4: Watching TV is not always a good leisure activity for children.

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 5: What should students do to increase opportunities of getting a job after graduation?

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 6: To some extent, people suppose that the disadvantages of technological devices outweigh their advantages.

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 7: What are reasons for using social media?

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 8: Is it important for the youngster to save money?

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 9: Why are physical activities and sports essential in a student's life?

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

Topic 10: Young people tend to commit juvenile crimes for many reasons.

Present the topic you choose from the list. Students will have some cues or they can create their own ideas.

